UGANDA MISSION TRIP 2017

In all 28 people set out for Uganda, arriving on June 27th after a nice long (relaxed) two full days journey. Two have already arrived—Angie and Joy and are working on repairing the orphanage. Three are flying from Albuquerque, New Mexico (Stan Bausinger and his daughter and son-in-law). Two will join us from Ireland (Fr. Pat's grand niece, Katie and her Dad). One will fly from Washington DC, Dorothy who is a Blessed Trinity parishioner and is sponsoring a new adventure on our sister parish—a commercial fish pond. And the remaining 20 take off from Orlando via Dubai to Entebbe to Nalweyo. Besides the big orphanage repair job; the commercial fish pond; we will be running a Bible Camp (1000 kids daily under Sr. Juliet; visiting 30 village Churches and blessing two new Churches; visiting all the students pre-k through 12th in our two Catholic schools (700+ students); taking new photos of each student for you, our sponsors; doing some farm work; setting up the whole campus for the internet (David Carnes—Joyce Lemek's nephew); praying a lot; and finally having a big celebration with the Nalweyo community on the Sunday after we arrive. The next issue of the Triangle should give you some good details.

MISSION CO-OP GUEST SPEAKERS

In every diocese in the U.S.A. through the Office of the Propagation of the Faith religious communities are invited by the diocese to make an appeal and take a collection for the support of their ministries. Next weekend, July 1-2, Fr. Patrick Quinn, TOR will preach on behalf of Sister Judy Waldt's community the Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart, based in Baltimore, MD. Fr. Patrick will preach at all the Masses and share his personal experience of the Mission Helper's ministry throughout the United States and Venezuela.

Sister Judy has been a Mission Helper for 34 years. Sr. Judy's ministry and leadership in the community have taken her to many Dioceses in the United States. At present, Sister Judy's ministry is the Director of Faith Formation here at St. Patrick's Church where she works with the Early Learning Center, Religious Education, Adult Faith Formation and Annulments. Thank you in advance for your generosity and prayerful support.

June 24/25: In memory of Walter Wendling by Ofelia Wendling

July 1/2: In memory of Agnes Shashy by Barbara Shashy Wright

July 8/9:

July 15/16: In memory of Dr. Richard Anthony Dzik by Diane Dzik

July 22/23:

July 29/30:

We are reminded in today's readings that we are human, and that as a result of that we are sinners, and we inherit that sin from the very beginning, from Adam. St. Paul points that out in our Second Reading from Romans 2. Were you aware that in Hebrew the name Adam means "humanity?"

In today's Gospel Reading from Matthew, Jesus also reminds us of the fact that we are sinners, but He also prompts us to remember that one of the reasons we sin is because we fear other humans and the consequences of living out our faith more than we fear the Lord Himself. Jesus says, "...do not be afraid of those who kill the body, but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna."

"Gehenna" is translated in some Bible versions as "Hell." What the Lord is trying to communicate to us may be that we probably tend to fear earthly matters and earthly people more than we fear God. If we are "killed" by someone or something on earth it is the body only which dies. However, shrinking back from God's call can have eternal consequences.

"Saving grace" and being saved are probably not thoughts on which we like to dwell, but they are real, and we need to recognize that. St. Alphonsus Liguori wrote, "The saved are few, but we must live with the few if we would be saved with the few. O God, too few indeed they are; yet amongst those few I wish to be."

Featured Book of the week: "You Can Share the Faith: Reaching Out One Person At A Time" by Karen Edmisten "Many Catholics are baffled about how to share the faith, but the good news is it's not complicated. Jesus didn't have a Twitter account, followers on Facebook, or a livestream app, though he would have made good use of those. He started with one person, then another, then a handful – and his mission grew. Karen Edmisten's own journey from atheism to Catholicism followed a similar low-key, one-on-one model and frames her lively advice. As she moves from initial impression – "Catholics are weird" – to her conversion, friends along the way listen, support, answer her questions, and give her the space she needs. In You Can Share the Faith: Reaching Out One Person at a Time Edmisten draws out practical pointers from her own story and the stories of others to help you share your faith confidently and with compassion"
CLEARANCE ITEMS!! Come into our Gift Shop and see all the clearance items ranging from picture frames, crucifixes, nativity scenes, jewelry and other items. New items are coming soon. If you haven't been in the gift shop lately then stop in and browse.
