STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK

Like the sensible bridesmaids in today's parable, good stewards make sure that they, and whatever gifts are theirs to share, are ready to serve when the Master calls.

WORD OF LIFE

"Christ came to liberate us from the cycle of violence by showing us how to love and be merciful. ...As the culture of death threatens to electively select who does and who does not deserve life, we must uphold that all human life has invaluable dignity and worth."

STEWARDS OF THE WEEK

PAUL SOUCY, ANN VANDEUSEN AND DOMINGA FLYNN

Thanks to Paul Soucy, Ann VanDeusen, and Dominga Flynn for helping the sub in Liz's absence the weekend of October 22nd. Your help was greatly appreciated!

Thank you for being faithful Stewards!

BAPTISMS:

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Christ cautions us often concerning our sense of conversion and timing. It has a lot to do with procrastination — that is, putting something off or delaying something which needs to be accomplished.

Most of us understand the importance of living up to Christ's expectations and living life in a way to which He has called us. In other words, we comprehend that we need to be His disciples, but we seem to find excuses and reasons not to totally commit to that. That is exactly the issue Jesus is addressing in today's Gospel from St. Matthew, which is essentially the Parable of the Ten Virgins. Are we truly prepared for the return of Christ, the Second Coming? In a sense it has everything to do with death. We may not wish to think about it but we do know that death is inevitable, and have we done everything we need to do to be prepared?

It was St. Augustine of Hippo who said, "God has promised forgiveness to your repentance, but He has not promised tomorrow to your procrastination." Like the Virgins in the parable, we cannot wait. Now, this very moment, is the time for us to do what God has called us to do, and that is live lives of stewardship in service and love to others. There are indeed no promises about tomorrow, but Christ has offered us hope for eternal life. Have we done everything we need to do to be ready?

Featured Children's Book of the week:
"Jesus Speaks to me about The Mass"

"I am Jesus. I'm your friend and I love you. And I'm waiting for you to come to Mass! Jesus loves children and wants to draw close to them during the Mass. In this beautifully illustrated book, Jesus speaks directly to children, explaining the Mass by linking the liturgy to scenes from the Gospels. Reading this book with children will help them understand what is happening when they go to Mass and why Jesus is so happy they are there. Illustrations of objects used at Mass, as well as several prayers for children, are also included. This book can be read before Mass to help prepare children for the celebration or brought to Mass so that children can follow each part of the liturgy. The goal is to help children connect the actions of the Mass with Jesus gift of himself in the Eucharist."

Small scale coffee, tea, hot cocoa, & olive oil family farmers in Asia, Africa, Latin America, India, and Palestine are often squeezed onto the sidelines by large enterprises that can produce items faster, cheaper, and in large quantities. FAIR TRADE helps these farmers maintain their livelihoods ensuring they are fairly compensated for their work and supports the creation of cooperatives to compete more effectively.
