STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK

Today's reading from Revelation offers a vision of the City of God, the new Jerusalem. "But," the bishops' pastoral on stewardship reminds us, "that 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now."

Your prayers are requested for Michael Piancone who has recently died.

The concept of hospitality is fundamental to a stewardship way of life. When we envision hospitality, we naturally think of offering a sincere and warm welcome — to those new to our parish, for instance. We picture inviting them in and making them feel at home and at ease in our presence, communicating to them that they are highly valued.

Today's Gospel reading from John invites us to think of hospitality in a slightly different way. In it, we hear Jesus speaking this to his disciples: "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him."

Jesus is asking that we permit the Blessed Trinity to come and dwell within us. This is a stunning request. It tells us that our first and most privileged form of hospitality should be directed towards God Himself.

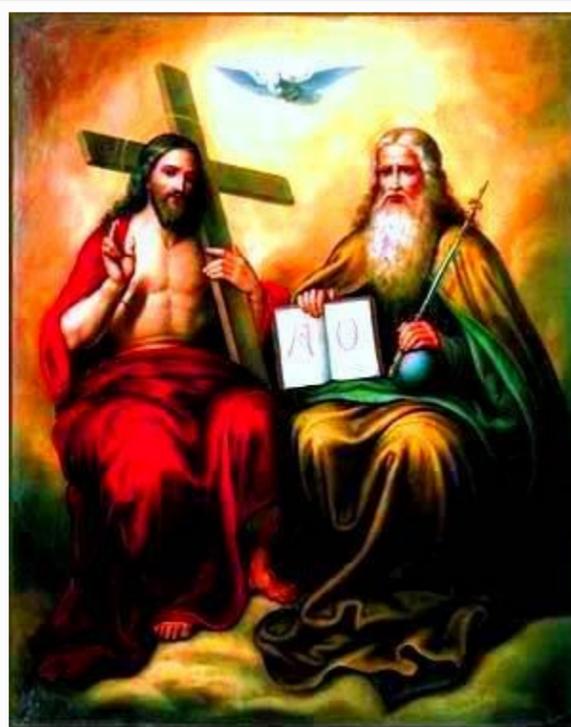

How does one show hospitality to God? How do we make God "at home and at ease" within us? How can we communicate to God that He is "highly valued" by us?

Jesus tells us how: we are to keep His word, to follow His teachings.

In order to keep His word, we must know His word. This takes discipline and effort on our part. We must make study of Scripture and Church teaching a priority in our daily lives.

If we want our parish to be a place of genuine Christian hospitality, we must be sure that our own hearts are hospitable dwelling places for the Blessed Trinity. Then, our smiles and words, our greetings and ministries, will radiate with the warmth of God's love. And, our parish family will become at least a little bit like Heaven on earth. This is the simplicity and glory of a stewardship way of life.

COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN (CCW)

Celebrating mass and having a catered dinner, closed out our 2018-2019 season. CCW will begin again in September 2019.

This season saw an increase of over 50% in membership and offered a new format for meetings held once a month, Friday afternoon in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

CCW: hosted guest speakers; prepared the grocery bags for Thanksgiving and Christmas donations to Brother's Keeper; sold coupons for the Belk's Charity Day-making a $675.00 donation to Brother's Keeper; sponsored a Diaper Drive filling up the Brother's Keeper van and providing $472.00 in a cash donation; hosted an Alpha Center Baby Shower, donating over 100 items and baking cookies for Focus 11.

Along with the above, CCW ladies were busy collecting and bagging 1 gal bags of personal supplies for the homeless, making a cash gift to the Burse Club, sponsoring a Uganda student, with proceeds from the annual Candy Bar Sale held in February, along with sending representatives to Catholic Days at the Capitol during the spring session in Tallahassee.

CCW is open to all ladies of the parish and offers a variety of social, spiritual and enrichment activities. If you feel that this is something you would like to do starting in September, call Marty Duesel at 352.861.2853, or look for bulletin notices in the upcoming months.

It has been a wonderful year for CCW and CCW is forever grateful to the support from the parish as well as the guidance and encouragement from Father Pat and his staff.

PARISH COUNCIL ELECTIONS

Thanks to all of you who voted for our three candidates for the one open at large position in our Parish Council. Maria Elena Bosque was elected. It was a close election. All three candidates thank you for your votes. It looks like the other two candidates, Kelly Ostanik and Vicki Moore, will be appointed to the Council because two other Council members will not be available to complete their three year term.

YET ANOTHER EAGLE

Rhyan Christopher Gomez was inducted into the high rank of Eagle Scout at First Presbyterian Church on Saturday, May 18th. We congratulate him and his family and his Scout Troop 72. His older brothers, Xavier and Gabriel Gomez are both Eagle Scouts—that is three Eagle Scouts in the same family.
